

FEBRUARY 7-8, 2013 @ UC BERKELEY

MEDIA HISTORIES / MEDIA THEORIES & EAST ASIA

MEDIA HISTORIES / MEDIA THEORIES & EAST ASIA

February 7th - 8th, 2013 @ UC Berkeley (370 & 3335 Dwinelle Hall)

This conference will feature nearly 40 international scholars to discuss East Asian and Japanese cross-cultural developments in media theory and culture from the early twentieth century to the present.

PLENARY SPEAKERS include:

YOSHIMI Shun'ya 吉見俊哉 media theorist

FUJIHATA Masaki 藤幡正樹 media artist

UNO Kuniichi 宇野邦一 philosopher / theorist

IKEGAMI Hiroko 池上裕子 art historian

HIRASAWA Go 平沢剛 film scholar

Roland DOMENIG film scholar

plus over thirty other media scholars and researchers

Scan for conference website:

Short URL: goo.gl/8vTaS

Co-sponsored by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS), the Center for Japanese Studies (CJS), the Center for Chinese Studies, the Berkeley East Asia National Resource Center, and the Arts Research Center (ARC) at UC Berkeley, with additional support from the Doreen B. Townsend Center for the Humanities at UC Berkeley, the Department of Comparative Literature, and Japanese Arts & Globalizations (JAG)

For further information, please contact Miryam Sas at mbsas@berkeley.edu